

All Along

Pennywise

All along
We had a remedy to live these words
And stay true
You were all in your insanity
There's nothing left for you

Confusion, led to this hypocrisy
Welcomed truth shall carry on
Delusion, a fate by your conspiracy
Some waiting for so long

And now it seems yeah
That we are free yeah
From all the problems caused within
We're gonna live our lives again with arms wide open
the jury's spoken
and in the darkness of the night
You keep on hoping, hoping for a sign

We'll get it right this time.
We all, hey
Until running out, you're running out of..

Time hands are slowly creeping in on me
The final courting call
The last laugh are surely being heard by now
You're headed for a fall

Confusion, led to this hypocrisy
Welcomed truth shall carry on
Delusion, a fate by your conspiracy
Some waiting for so long

And now it seems yeah
That we are free yeah
From all the problems caused within
We're gonna live our lives again
with arms wide open
the jury's spoken
and in the darkness of the night
You keep on hoping, hoping for a sign

We'll get it right this time.
We all, hey
Until running out, you're running out of time
