Broken Vows

Pentagram

Taking my chances through madness
Trying to leave my problems behind
Paying off my debts to sadness
I've got better things on my mind yeah

Winning my race with emotion
Can't waste more time falling down
Pulled under like waves in the ocean
I lost myself but now I'm found yeah

Heatwaves of anger
Slowly burning down
Facing all my slander
Breaking all the vows yeah

Had given up the truth for lies
I've seen happiness come and go
Finding things that money can't buy
But your future is all in your soul yeah

Listen

Time slipping through your fingers
Tomorrow has become today
And as the image lingers
Of hell on earth to pay yeah
