

Drive Me to the Grave

Pentagram

In sleepless night I hear the thunder I feel the dead hands round my neck no telling what's this spell I'm under I breath a lifeless icy breath so when I ask you get the driver and tell him please be dressed in black I need him right beside the grave because you're never coming back won't you get the driver
drive me to the grave
ah, please, I need him or there'll be no one left to save someone help me look for what I'm after I'm chocking on the bad dream that I made just try to stop the evil laughter or there'll be no one left to save
so if I plead get the driver
I need him right beside the grave baby's never coming back no no alright they say we all got five bad points well I got five of my own I think they're bound to com through when the meat gets down to the bone
so if I plead get the driver
I need him right beside the grave
because you're never coming back you send me home to bust my back slap me to your torture rack you're out all night you sleep all day and when we talk I got no say So when I plead get the driver and tell him please be dressed in black
I need him right beside the grave
because you're never coming back
drive me to the grave
please I need him
no one left to save no no no
