

Forever My Queen

Pentagram

I'm running away with myself
I think I ran a little too far
Your love is more than a tease
And I'm gonna give it all of my heart
Situation is all wrapped up
No more needs to be said, oh no
You live in my world gotta heed me
And I know that you can cause you need me
There ain't nothin' gonna stop us now
We're willing and we both know how
And baby you're gonna be my queen
A king always know what he means
Well, alright
