

Foolish creatures
Impeding progress against the order
No more
Destroy and raze
Leave none alive

This suffering will be your fate
We'll bring an all-out slaughter
Annihilate
Eliminate
The ones who pushed us farther

Those ravenous savages
Primitive, those beasts
Inviting this
Bringing this
Ending that they seek

Down to the last one, show them who we are
Push them against the wall
Turning their whole world into ash
We'll bleed their world dry, they'll regret the day
When none of their lives remain
We'll strike

You'll know
The very nature of the animal you've cornered
Once your prey, and now your predator
The voices call for blood
Who are we not to listen?
(Take your vengeance)
Who are we not to listen?
(Ruination)
Who are we not to listen?

Turning their whole world into dust and ash
We'll bleed their whole world dry
Down to the last one, show them who we are
None of their lives will remain
