Infinity Edge

Pentakill

Beyond the lands of dreams
I hear the call of riches
Word of waters blessed unnatural
Granting power of gods to men

Under the distant sun is my calling
I walk the lands
That death cannot conquer
And through the unforgiving worlds
The battle lays in wait

Seeking the way
That leads me to the power of the edge
The edge

I'm living and dying a thousand lives
And it's taken its toll on me this time
The edge cares not so why should I
Because I breathe the air of immortals
And I'll be the true invincible
The edge is my destiny

So far from home I'm reeling
I've seen the fall of friends
The end of the road approaching
I will have my victory

I will not cease to be
You will not ever stop me
I won't give up the dream
You cannot ever stop me

Seeking the way
That leads me to the power of the edge

I'm living and dying a thousand lives
And it's taken its toll on me this time
The edge cares not so why should I
Because I breathe the air of immortals
And I'll be the true invincible
The edge is my destiny

I'm living and dying a thousand lives
And it's taken its toll on me this time
The edge cares not so why should I
Because I breathe the air of immortals
And I'll be the true invincible
The edge is my destiny

My destiny
My destiny
My destiny
My destiny
