

Rapid Firecannon

Pentakill

A forgotten place inside the lonely tower
Tear it down with a metal roar
The war eternal, I assail the unassailable
A second release unhaunted by my past

Beneath the marshlands
Calling forth the night
Buried deep a weapon forged in fire
Fathers and sons, their kin laid to waste
(An evil is renewed)

Light up
The night with flames and cinder
For I am renewed
(Down in flames)
(Feel the kick and watch them burn)

Light up
Caught in the crossfire Overwhelming firepower
(Now return to hell)
(In a firestorm)

Out with the old
In with the new world order
Die or obey the choice is yours
Undetected, into the spider's web
Taking it apart slowly piece by piece

Find a shadow to hide me, and I wait
Tricksters and spellweavers beware
With this flame I culled the weak
Made my nation strong again
Well now they're all dead and gone
Dead and gone

With this blade
I call the weak
Make my nation strong again

Beneath the marshlands
Calling forth the night
Buried deep a weapon forged in fire
Fathers and sons, their kin laid to waste
(An evil is renewed)

Light up
The night with flames and cinder
For I am renewed
(Down in flames)
(Feel the kick and watch them burn)

Light up
Caught in the crossfire
Overwhelming firepower
(Now return to hell)
(In a firestorm)
