

The Bloodthirster

Pentakill

Cast down the weak
Those who deceived us
Those who would let us burn
Liars and cheats
Brittle and weak
Another day will come

Crawling on your knees right to the end
I let you pretend you had your last days
Calling for me to disappear
I cannot be so easily sent forth

As you descended on them
You carry their memories of endless pain
As remnants to their end
One after one
You sever them, sever them
Sever

Sever, sever your demons deep within
A shadow that's been long instilled

Cast down the weak
Those who deceived us
Those who would let us burn
Liars and cheats
Brittle and weak
Another day will come

Torment so easily dispensed
You tried to break our will but you failed
Calling the serpentine flame
Until we were just dust and remains

As you descended on them
You carry their memories of endless pain
As remnants to their end
One after one
You sever them, sever them
Sever

Cast down the weak
Those who deceived us
Those who would let us burn
Liars and cheats
Brittle and weak
Another day will come

Cast down the weak
Those who would flee us
Those who would let us burn
Liars and cheats
Feeble and weak
I see them
Another day will
Another day will
Another day will come
