

Empty Space

Penumbra

Come... Come to me
Reveal your side
Horror, no grace
Become true from now

Fire is lit
Ire is real

Reign as a prince
The king of the times
Kill the ones who have an unfaithful life
Cursed by life, but standing
Make your anger an immortal art

Just behave in an iconic way
(Plant them the kiss of death)
When the night replaces the day
(Give on your own the final disgrace)

(Then you will find a reason to stay
You've been waiting so long
Why did you burn my passion?
Then you will shine, but you will be alone and)

Dance, dance with the shades
Embrace them into the flames
You'll go nowhere, nothing to share
I prefer to prevail all alone
Dance with the roaming skeletons

Heal, heal your mind
Forget your pride
Be your own guide
Betrayal is law

Glance at your new world, your lands
Gaze at the frost
The sand will shift beneath your feet
Will dreams exist when you're forever gone?
And gaze at your own blurry shadow

Every time I fall, I feel so weak
Does my funeral come? My faith is nil
Repressed emotions, they interfere
Become a reason to leave all dreams
My end is near, my faith is nil

I got the courage
To find what I am
To objectify your essence, what you are
So trivial and petty
I do succumb to immoral acts

Just behave in an iconic way
(Plant them the kiss of Death)
When the night replaces the day
(Give on your own the final disgrace)
