

Passage

Penumbra

They have dissected my brain
But beginning today
I'll catch my breath again
I will find my own Eden
We are only worms in a big role play

You succeeded in going beyond
An ongoing search for eternal peace
Now experience your inner self
It's the secret to finding the passage

Vision, hope more
Now you look forward
To fleeing this treachery

I grew best before in pain
And I learnt with dismay
That most of quests were vain
As they fed a narcissism
We all run after some kinds of clichés

You never know what can arise
But I am ready to jump into my life
Now experience your inner self
It's the secret to believing in your fate

Vision, hope more
Now you look forward
To fleeing this treachery

I was just surviving
By betraying myself
I thought I could walk, walk alone
On a way without asperities
Along a road without loyalty

Kiss the freedom
Forget the devil
Your glorious past
As symbol of pride
Skip the fury
Then omit the queens
And follow the signs
Find your own place into a ride

The world is mine
And damned it's cruel
You could never change the rule

Feel alive
Please rely
On your own illusions
Float

Miss your ideal
Feel the unreal
Find your passage

Your astral way

Now it's time to live apart, fly away
Get on your path, get away, run away
Don't be afraid and start to breathe
And do not think about your sins

I reach the fullness
With my treasure your face

Please rely on your own illusions
They are strong
Feel, love, exist

Miss your ideal
Feel the unreal
Find your passage
Your astral way
Love is reel
Hear the peal
Of the passage
Where you don't have to pray
