Pepper

I bet you like your money more than you
I bet your plastic is always approved
You got so much at any time you want
You want so much you forget what you want

Are you a product of a spoiled youth?
Is the subject of your past taboo?
Maybe you're just occupied with wealth
Or maybe I'm just tied up to myself

Do you, do you listen,
Or only talk?
Well I hope you think about it just a little more baby
Do you, do you open doors,
Or only knock?
Well I hope you think about it just a little more baby

Can you see me here
How I've been locked up inside your mirror
Maybe you would see clearer
If you looked at something else
I wish that you were here
With me, and stepped back away from your mirror
Maybe you would see clearer
If you looked at something else

The latest fashion crumpled on the floor
Your phone is ringing but you press ignore
You keep the morning at a distance please
The fun last night's got no memories

Time to motivate get out the sack
You pour a cup and watch the steam elapse
Up in the high rise looking down on me
As I walk along the humble streets

Do you, do you listen,
Or only talk?
Well I hope you think about it just a little more baby
Do you, do you open doors,
Or only knock?
Well I hope you think about it just a little more baby

Can you see me here
How I've been locked up inside your mirror
Maybe you would see clearer
If you looked at something else
I wish that you were here
With me, and step back away from your mirror
Maybe you would see clearer
If you looked at something else

Do you listen?
Tell me girl
Do you listen?
Only talk
Well I hope you think about it just a little more baby

Can you see me here
How I’ve been locked up inside your mirror
Maybe you would see clearer
If you looked at something else
I wish that you were here
With me, and step back away from your mirror
Maybe you would see clearer
If you looked at something else
