

Kissing Is The Key

Per Gessle

I've paid a lot of attention to this recently
There's another dimension when you're close to me
You don't have to have a go-go girl in your family tree
Oh it's not about the money go shake that jewelry

Kissing is the key to an everlasting love
The kissing is the key to an everlasting love

I try to break thru the tension in the shopping mall
There's another dimension on the poetry wall
You don't have to wear dancin' shoes to do the crawl
To verify this intention oh oh oh none at all

Kissing is the key to an everlasting love
The kissing is the key to an everlasting love

It really doesn't matter what you are hiding from
Kissing kissing kissing is the key to an everlasting love

Kissing is the key to an everlasting love
The kissing is the key to an everlasting love

It really doesn't matter where you are coming from
Kissing kissing kissing is the key to an everlasting love
