

One of These Days

Per Gessle

Time takes a breath
I feel it on my skin
A time for rest
Before the new day breaks

So blue, so blue
The skies of lovers eyes
It's a time for peace
But how long must I wait
How long must I wait

One of these days I know
I'll wake up lying in summer arms
Until then I will fight the cold with Memories
Sha la la
To keep me warm

One of these days
The sand will spell your name
Inside a heart
One of these better days
Sha la la la
Taste the wine of a much sweeter time

One of these days I know
I'll wake up lying in summer arms
Until then I will fight the cold with Memories
Sha la la
To keep me warm
Sha la la la
Taste the wine of a much sweeter time
Time
Time
Time
