

Between These Arms

Percy Sledge

Between these arms
Is love and affection
Between these arms
Her heart beats for you
With these two eyes
I see your perfection
And these two lips
Want only you

Between these arms
These arms so calm
There's a tender place
Where you belong

The smile on my face
There that I'm breathing
The words that I speak
Are all just for you

Between these arms
These arms so strong
And a tender place
A place where you belong
Between these arms
These so strong
There's a tender place...
