

You Fooled Me

Percy Sledge

You fooled me
Oh what a surprise
You deceived me
With your sweet little lies
I told everyone
That you were mine
But my judgement of you
Was oh so darling darling
You fooled me

You close my eyes
When there's much for me to see
And your lies
Will effect me eternally
I beckon to your call
Gave you my all
I was so much in love with you
While you was playing around
Well you fooled me

I tried to take it
As deeper than me
But I can't hide my heart
From what my eyes have seen

And oh you fooled me
And I hope that you are proud
To see this man
This little lonely heartbroken man
Crying out loud
And what happens
When you see me cry
I hope you'll apologize
Cause you fooled me mama
And mama that's not nice

You fooled me hey hey girl
You pulled the wool right over my eyes
You fooled me now now now now
I can't stand no more of your lies
You fooled me baby baby baby
How you fooled me baby baby baby
You fooled me hey hey girl
I can't stand no more of your lies
You fooled me
