

Don't Worry

Pere Ubu

Here she comes
Like the rain
Like the wind
Like the wild wild wind tearin the roof off somebody's heart

Here she comes
Like the rain
Like the wind
Like the wild wild wind tearin the roof off somebody's heart
In a way I hope that we might continue somehow as friends

In a way I hope that we might continue somehow as friends
In a way I hope that we might continue somehow as friends
