

Life of Riley

Pere Ubu

Somebody better put out the cat Somebody better wind the clock Somebody better shut out the light Somebody better wake me up Since she's gone it's a new world and nobody's ever gonna be the same but ain't nobody better cry me a river and ain't nobody better cry me a sea
Every day is a holiday

Gentle hands of time come to me
Why don't you soothe my furrowed brow?
Ain't nobody better say to me how I mighta done better cuz I don't know how Every day is a holiday

Somebody better go fetch the beer Somebody better come in out of the rain
I hear the sound of somebody leaving It reminds me of that best ole friend of mine
but ain't nobody better cry me a river
and ain't nobody better cry me a sea
Every day is a holiday

Somebody better fetch that tv over here Somebody better go fish
