Pere Ubu

I don't know much about her history the how & why of it or all the mysteries
But I hear some people saying that she might not be the one
Anyway
I know a bit about how hard it can be Yet I make her to be like I wanted the world to be Meanwhile
I should have known hearts are treacherous and have a life of their own!
And I feel like believin in her
Feel like no raging seas
Feel like nobody's fool
Am I falling?

Am I free?

I don't know much about the lay of the land
You start in the middle
You do the best that you can
Some days I think I can see the signs and it's remarkable
when love is not only blind
"How wide?"
"How long?"
"How high?"
"How strong?"
Some days I think I see the light It's remarkable
when love is not only blind
And I feel like I'm playin hurt
Feel like a setting sun
Feel like I've always known
Am I falling?

I don't know much about biology
When the cut isn't deep they say
Oughta let it bleed
I don't know much about broken hearts
So when a heart falls apart can we still be who we are?
And I hear some people saying that she might not be the one
Anyway
Am I falling?
