

Where's the Truth

Pere Ubu

Take my heart,
take my hand,
take my whole world, too, some things are not meant to be
I cannot help it, to fall in love with you
some things are not meant to be
some things are not meant to be

Like that river flows, it flows into the sea,
so that river goes,
some things are not meant to be
