

Winter in the Firelands

Pere Ubu

Winter in the Firelands
a summer of lies Somewhere the truth
between them has died
A man for the season
A man for the test
Put out the lights on leaving Abandon the past
I want to be the one
the only one

A road through the firelands a mark in the snow That's where the lonely people bury their hope Turn back the hands of time
Turn back the kiss of faith Turn back the eyes of justice Shoot out the lights & wait
I want to be the one
the only one
