Periphery

We are the earth
We are the sky
Immortalized
We are the body and the mind
The ancient tribe
If we could only stop the beating
Keeping our pulses from retreating
We are the heart
One vicious heart
Don't let it die

A piece of us has shifted sideways
And all dignity slips away
A priest, a god live in your beliefs
An escape from what still remains

You can't arrest in the peace when violence is no use
We take the measures so fuck the poison that's slowly killing you
When living life is a feat and nothing's right with the youth
You drink the poison or pour it out 'cause it's slowly killing you

We are the earth
We are the sky
Immortalized
We are the body and the mind
The ancient tribe (We are the ancient tribe)
If we could only stop the beating
Keep our pulses from retreating
We are the heart
One vicious heart
Don't let it die

Don't let it die
Die, die
Don't let it die
Die, die

We are the heart
One vicious heart
Don't let it die
We are the earth
We are the sky
Immortalized

Further we move, the less we are
Further we pull, the spool of shit we find
Further we move, the less we are
Further we pull, the thread of shit unwinds

Forever falling forward
Relapse
Elastic on the timeline
Regress
Rewind
We push
We pull
Cast a vote for a glass half full

Build it up for the afterlife

We are the earth

We are the sky

Immortalized

We are the body and the mind

The ancient tribe (We are the ancient tribe)

If we could only stop the beating

Keep our pulses from retreating

We are the heart

One vicious heart

Don't let it die
