

Working Girls (Sunlight Shines)

Pernice Brothers

She summered every winter through a calendar from paradise
A cheap dressed up temp-job and a tan by cold florescent light
'Anticipation' playing from the radio it mocks her life
'I was here', she scribbled in a restroom to prove she was alive

All the working girls are fine
All the working girls are fine
All the working girls
All the working girls
All the working girls are fine

She summered every winter through a calendar from
paradise
I was here she scribbled in a restroom to prove she was alive

All the working girls are fine
All the working girls are fine
All the working girls
All the working girls
All the working girls are fine

Sunlight shines

Contemplating suicide or a graduate degree
I said how's it going with her
I feel sullen
I feel sullen
I feel seventeen
