

Where You Are

Perrie

You and I were bound by invisible string
Oceans, skylights, nothing could come in between
'Cause I met a guy that my dad approves of
That sunset kinda love that I used to dream of Sleeping bags, up late camping on the rooftop
Now I'm looking at the stars, it reminds me that

I wanna be where you are, where you are
I wanna be wherever you are
Where you are, where you are
I wanna be wherever you are
Where you are, where you are
I wanna be wherever you are
Where you are, where you are
Tell me I'll always be the first thing when you're waking up
Place you call home and the name on the tip of your tongue
Where you are, where you are
I wanna be wherever you are

First game I saw you, you said, "Come meet my friends at the bar"
We went back through London
You were blasting my songs out the car
Singing "Shout out to my ex" at the top of your lungs
I'm learning the offside rule
Like it's a sign of true love
When I met you, my pals said to run
But now there's nowhere in this world that I'd rather be

Than where you are, where you are
I wanna be wherever you are
Where you are, where you are
Tell me I'll always be the first thing when you're waking up
Place you call home and the name on the tip of your tongue
Where you are, where you are
I wanna be wherever you are
