

SO MANY THINGS

Perry Blake

So many things to turn you on
Maybe I don't just turn you on
If I could start again
Then I would start again
If I could start again
Then I would, my friend

So many things to keep you on
So many things to make you smile
There's a new day at door
There's a new sky at door
Maybe there's a new sky for us

If I could start again
Then I would start again
If I could smile again
Then I would, my friend
