

You Can't Pull the Wool over My Eyes

Perry Como

You can't pull the wool over my eyes
You can't get away with telling those lies
You're not the way you used to be
I've got eyes and I can see
You've been stepping out on me
What a surprise, I'm wise

You can't alibi, try as you may
That look in your eyes gives you away
Oh, you got yourself in a jam
You're going to lose your honey lamb
'Coz you can't pull the wool over my eyes
