

The Equable

Persefone

Facing silence
With this grief inside

I long to sense
Close my eyes
Feel the hands of time

Inner turmoil
Fighting every inch of the self
Immersed in torment
My voice has been sucked out of me
But all I ever wanted was peace

I long to sense
I close my eyes
Let the light shine through all these walls
Let this burden burn in my soul

Dive deep down
Ease this ache
Find the place

Coming home
(Awakened)
I am flowing with the tides
I am reaching the shores of light
(Healing inside)
Dancing with the waves of time
Carried by the winds I ride

And what are left but open scars?
I tear right through them
To find relief
Feeding the heart with angst
In solitude I find rest

I long to sense
I close my eyes
I am feeling the hands of time

From this prison
I need to grow
Out of myself
One with it all
Reborn

One with it all
I am reborn

Coming home
(Awakened)
I am flowing with the tides
I am reaching the shores of light
(Healing inside)
Dancing with the waves of time
Carried by the winds I ride
(I am coming home)

I am coming home
Healing inside
At last to find
