

Still...

Persephone

I lost the sparkle of my eyes
Long time ago...
You did not mind, you did not show
In your eyes I was desirable
You are the mirror of my torn soul
Which wants to find salvation
You are my beauty

I forgot to speak of feelings
Long time ago...
You did not mind, you did not show
You let me see there's a better life
For a moment I saw the sun
Through the tears in my eyes
You are my hope

I couldn't find my inner peace
Long time ago...
You did not mind, you did not show
You dried my tears with tenderness
Your touch made my broken skin
Breathe again
You are my love

I'm holding your hand, still
Although you are so cold
I feel your love, still
Although you can't answer my kisses
Still I feel beautiful
Although you look at me with glassy eyes
Still I long for your touch, my eternal love
