

Gateways

Persuader

Silent statues
In a room where no one lives
Shapes within shapes without form
Voices from the columns whisper
Glance upon the blade that glimmer
No way to escape the coming storm

They've gone too far
Uprising, defying
Before their eyes
The holy tree is burning by its roots

You fall behind
Ruler of nothing at all
I'm out of sight
The night will be everlasting

United cult of blood exalt
Give in to your desire
Covenant obscure will rule forever more
Longing for Satan's empire
Our trinity, divinity will burn in holy fire
Father and the son, unholy ghost of none
Open the gateways of pain

Unpresent god
No wonders to be seen
A slit of the tongue and it's done
Not a mental apparition
Blood will bring a clearer vision
Spirits chanting forth the evil one

They've gone too far
Uprising, defying
Before their eyes
The holy tree is burning by its roots

You fall behind
Ruler of nothing at all
I'm out of sight
The night will be everlasting

United cult of blood exalt
Give in to your desire
Covenant obscure will rule forever more
Longing for Satan's empire
Our trinity, divinity will burn in holy fire
Father and the son, unholy ghost of none

The guided will ravish the earth, the kingdom and universe
Through the light to bring eternal night

You fall behind
I'm out of sight
The night will be everlasting

United cult of blood exalt
Our trinity, divinity will burn in holy fire
Father and the son, unholy ghost of none
