

Scars

Persuader

One last look at the world
I watched as it turned from blue to grey
Welcome to the golden age of man
Immortals as gods is soon to be

You are not the first you see
Descendants of the fury, born into nightmares

I've seen the heavens and the fires below me
Sentenced forevermore
I looked behind the door
I bid my last farewell and ride with the four
Marching onward, the one and true death awaits

The countdown of ecstasy
As darkness falls and madness brings life back from death
It holds them disguised
Where no one can see

You are not the one you're me
I brought you back and you will Follow me, bow for me forever and ever again

I've seen the heavens and the fires below me
Sentenced forevermore
I looked behind the door
I bid my last farewell and ride with the four
Marching onward, the one and true death awaits

Souls of the awakened
What has been bound to earth must never be set free
Unholy true believer
Apprentice of the dead
Summoned demons
Bewitched by the spell

Returned to the underworld
Allegiance sworn
Brought back to descend upon the man-made walls
No more gods
I've turned all the angels
Reign of darkness a new beginning

I've seen the heavens and the fires below me
Sentenced forevermore
I looked behind the door
I bid my last farewell and ride with the four
Marching onward, the one and true death awaits
