

Seven Times Eternity

Pertness

In the land where the shadows lie where a dark lord reigns with seel frozen cold and black darkened sky and all men are damned to die seven years fear of the time to go seven years full of pain

under the sky
seven years of waiting
in their halls of stone mortal men are doomed to die
mortal men are doomed to die

In the dark in the underground where the lord's priest can't reach them they are waiting for deliverance because the time will soon have come
