

Longing

Pete Murray

Wasted
With all the worth flowing out of me now
I gotta break away
Standing
In your deep water it's rising on me how
Do I heal the day

Rainbows are falling from your eyes
To lead my way
All of your loving juices are running
Into my day

Hold me now
And take me back to what I've been running from
While my fears are down
Now I'm homeward bound
And in your arms is where I've been longing
To be hanging out

Tasting
All your breath flowing into me now
Floats me away
Burning
All your summer days call me out
To come and play

Rainbows are falling from your eyes
To lead my way
All of your loving juices are running
Into my day

Hold me now
And take me back to what I've been running from
While my fears are down
Now I'm homeward bound
And in your arms is where I've been longing
To be hanging out

Hold me now
And take me back to what I've been running from
While my fears are down
Now I'm homeward bound
And in your arms is where I've been longing
To be hanging out

Hold me now
And take me back to what I've been running from
While my fears are down
Now I'm homeward bound
And in your arms is where I've been longing
To be hanging out
