

Angels & Demons

Peter Andre

I do my best to be myself,
Don't always get it right,
It's like a war that never ends,
So who's gonna win this fight,

Coz the good is so good,
It's a vision of light,
But the bad is so bad,
It's a ghost in the night,

These angels and demons are close on my back,
But these tear drops from heaven are closer than that (and it feels like)
One's trying to take a piece of me (feels like)
One's trying to heal the hurt,
Wish these angels and demons would finally get off my back,

Another night I couldn't sleep,
My mind won't let me be,
The mornings here, no time at all,
I'm back to being me,

I'm on my own,
I'm standing tall
And I'm ok
You're in my head,
You're talking load
Don't hear a word you say

Cause the road to salvation is now in my sight
And I won't let you lead me from the path that's right

These angels and demons are close on my back,
But these tear drops from heaven are closer than that (and it feels like)
One's trying to take a piece of me (feels like)
One's trying to heal the hurt,
Wish these angels and demons would finally get off my back,

And i know that I shouldn't be asking for this,
But if I fall from heaven,
Help me land on my feet,
So much inside of my heart unspoken they can tear me apart,
But I won't be broken,
No I won't break,

These angels and demons are close on my back,
But these tear drops from heaven are closer than that (and it feels like)
One's trying to take a piece of me (feels like)
One's trying to heal the hurt,
Wish these angels and demons would finally get off my back,
