

Lift the Sky

Peter Andre

I am because of you
There's nothing I can't do
Can climb the highest wall
Anything is possible

I found a strength inside
The day that you arrived
You helped me figure out
What this life's all about

I never thought I would find my way (out of the dark)
Its so beautiful I can't believe
Its happening to me
Its happening to me

There are days when I hurt
There are tears that I cry
They all disappear
When I look into your eyes

When I feel broken
Too broken to try
I look at you
And I can lift the sky

You know you own my heart
Never heard it beat so hard
Every waking thought is you
Your the one that gets me through

Even in my darkest hour
Somehow you shine a light
And with you by my side
What's wrong, now is right

Anything in this world to understand
I'll be by your side
I'll hold your hand

There are days when I hurt
There are tears that I cry
They all disappear
When I look into your eyes

When I feel broken
Too broken to try
I look at you
And I can lift the sky

There are hearts in every ocean
There are leaves in every tree
Wherever life may take you
Just know I got your back
Just know I got your back

I am me
Coz of you

I would run through fire if you asked me too

There are days when I hurt
There are tears that I cry
They all disappear
When I look into your eyes

When I feel broken
And I can lift the sky

When I feel broken
