

Oh, My Bro

Peter Cmoric

She's worth a million poems, million sleepless nights...
In her every road ends
and in her the sun shines...
I was made to hold her,
she's tattooed on my soul...
If I wait any longer,
will she ever kiss me?

Oh, my bro, this girl's a wonder...
One brief look at her feels like thunder...
Oh, my bro, she can't be real, yeah,
perfect right from head to heel...

Strove to take my time,
but failed at the very first try...
And strove to count to ten -
- didn't work, I'm just a weak man...

There's no way to stop it
and there's no way to flee...
The fragrance of her body's mesmerizing me, oh...
Nothing's as it's been and I'm flying high Soon I'm gonna make her mine...

She's worth a million roses,
everybody knows...
Free as running horses,
an ocean without shores...
I was made to love her,
no matter what it takes...
Head up and no borders,
bet she longs to kiss me...

Oh, my bro, this girl's a wonder...
One brief look at her feels like thunder...
Oh, my bro, she can't be real, yeah,
perfect right from head to heel...

Strove to take my time,
but failed at the very first try...
And strove to count to ten -
- didn't work, I'm just a weak man...

There's no way to fight it
and there's no way to flee...
The fragrance of her body's
mesmerising me, oh...
Nothing's as it's been and I'm flyin' high,
'cause I finally made her mine...

Her smile's a mystery,
never ending bliss to me...
We could reach the top of the world
Hand in hand, yeah...
All of my life's full of why's

Without her I'm up and down - driftin' sand...

Strove to take my time,
but failed at the very first try...
And strove to count to ten -
- didn't work, I'm just a weak man...

There's no way to fight it
and there's no way to flee...
The fragrance of her body's
mesmerising me, oh...
Nothing's as it's been and I'm flyin' high,
the reason's plain enough - she's mine...
