

Oily Boker

Peter Doherty

Still steadfast and strong
Remains my faith in song
I've seen a tender, violent throne
Ride the violence, the violence
Through we keep these songs on

On y va, Arcadia
Guard the house, you monkey mouse
On y va, oh la la
Someone forgot to say Oily Boker
Gentle man all day, Oily Boker

Stalters and full throttles
Well these days they're few, they're few and far between
I think I'll register my name
I'll register my name with a 60 skin puppet string

On y va, Arcadia
Guard the house, you monkey mouse
On y va, ouh la la
Someone forgot to say Oily Boker
Gentle man all day, Oily Boker

It's all a little too close to home
It's all a little too close to the bone
It's all a little too close to home
It's a little too close to the bone
It's all a little too close to home
It's all a little too close to the bone

Someone forgot to say Oily Boker
Gentle man all day, Oily Boker
