

Never Ever

Peter & Gordon

Sit down by my side
I'll tell you why you cried
There's just one thing
That's gettin' in your way

Just one look and I could see
What you're tryin', oh so hard to do to me
And now I find that you are not
The kind of girl that I should ever see

One and one are two
For me but maybe not for you
'Cause I've seen in your eyes
That two and two are five

You would love me if you knew
But lovin' me is a hard, hard thing to do
And now I find that you are not
The kind of girl that's ever been so true

Mm, I can't say how long you'll be happy
If you say you'll stay with me

But I would never, ever
Never, ever say
No, I'd never, ever
Never, ever say
"Stop this love today"

You'd see me
I'd be beggin' you to stay

I would never
Never, ever say
No, I'd never, ever
Never, ever say
"Stop this love today"

I would never
Never, ever say
No, I'd never, ever
Never, ever say
"Stop this love today"
Hey

Never say
