

Look out for Yourself

Peter Green

I've been sitting here waiting
Waiting for the sun to rise
It's been a lonely night
You left me kinda cold inside
The time's come to leave
I'm gonna tell you why
You've been a mean mistreater
You couldn't keep me if you tried
So just remember
Remember what I said
You better get ready
To look out for yourself

You said that you loved me baby
But you didn't look me in the eyes
And all those things you said
I guess you were telling lies
All your fooling around
Did it satisfy your pride
'Cause now I'm leaving
On a one way ticket ride
So just remember
Remember what I said
You better get ready
To look out for yourself

You better get ready
You better get ready
You better get ready
'Cause I won't be around
When your world comes tumbling down

I'm still sitting here waiting
Thinking 'bout all your lies
It's been another lonely night
I bet you didn't realize
When you said that you loved me
I knew that wasn't true
The time has gone
When I'd do anything for you
So just remember
Remember what I said
You better get ready
To look out for yourself
You better get ready
