

Whatcha Gonna Do?

Peter Green

What you going to do, what you going to do now daddy's left you

Where you going to go now that he's gone?

You give him all your love and all he ever gave to you was hurt
and sorrow

Now come tomorrow

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

Baby, now what you going to do, what you going to do now that y ou've lost him?

Where you going to hide those foolish tears?

Told him the way is up for him, you'd beg, steal or borrow

Now come tomorrow

He won't be there

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

Little dreamer, wake up to reality

Can't you see he doesn't need you?

He doesn't want you any more

So what you going to do?

Let me hold your hand, try to understand and let me help you

I can make it good, I can mend your broken heart

Baby, if you want to I can dry your tears and make you happy

But you must tell me, what you going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?

What's he going to do?
