

Just One Word

Peter Heppner

Love that aches
Love that breaks
A love that's done

Lovely dream
Love that seems
To go on

A love that shines
And turns you blind
A love that shows

A love that's too
New for you
You hope it grows

It's just one word
A single word that changes everything
Just one word
I've been waiting for so long
Just one word
A word to spit you out or pull you in
Just one word
That leaves a million things to say
With just one word

A love that burns
Love that churns you around

A love that stings
A love that brings you to the ground

A love that helps to find yourself
To make you one

A love that stays and will remain
When you're gone

It's just one word
A single word that changes everything
Just one word
I've been waiting for so long
Just one word
A word to spit you out or pull you in
Just one word
That leaves a million things to say
With just one word
