

Letter From Africa

Peter Heppner

Ruthless sun and pouring rain
That's what you know
Deepest jungles, desert plains
That's what you can see
Nature's wildlife freely roam
Ancient kingdoms, realms unknown
But first of all, above all else
This is a place called home

Ruthless sun and pouring rain
Deepest jungles, desert plains
Ancient kingdoms, realms unknown
This is a place called home

Ruthless sun and pouring rain
Deepest jungles, desert plains
Nature's wildlife freely roam
This is a place called home

Endless wars, no rights of man
That's what you know
Ruined cultures, hostile clans
That's what you can see

Suffering hunger, left alone
Mega-cities, lands unknown
But first of all, above all else
This is a place called home

Ruthless sun and pouring rain
Deepest jungles, desert plains
Ancient kingdoms, realms unknown
This is place called home

Endless wars, no rights of man
Ruined cultures, hostile clans
Suffering hunger, left alone
This is a place called home

Ruthless sun and pouring rain
Deepest jungles, desert plains
Nature's wildlife freely roam
This is a place called home
