

I Love The Animals

Peter McPoland

Hey Mr. Monkey, would you look at me?
I turned my money into quarters for a fist full of treats
Now be a good Mr. Monkey if you wanna get more
I had my Mama get a twenty at the corner store

Hey lookie lookie, there's a bird on the ledge!
There's another in the bushes and there's three on the hedge
I put my money in the sprocket and I turned it to seeds
They're burning holes in my pocket, see them flocking to me?

All at once and all together!
Life is good, but at the zoo it's better!
All for one, and one for all!
I love to see the sights, I love the animals

Hey little bunny let me see you hop
I love the color of your whiskers, gonna pet you a lot
And if you run from me, run from me, fast as you can
I will just lure you-a-back-a with the food in my hands!

All at once and all together!
Life is good, but at the zoo it's better!
All for one, and one for all!
I love to see the sights, I love the animals

I fed the fish in the swimming pool
I pet the stingray it was gross and cool
I saw the lion sleeping up in the grass
I think he might wake up if I bang on the glass
I think he might wake up if I bang on the glass

Can I get the t-shirt with the claw on the front?
Or the necklace with the shark tooth from a megaladon?
Yes I am good for the charge I got so much from my Mom
But when I empty out my pockets it's just lint and crumbs

Hey Mr. Monkey, would you look at me?
I turned my money into quarters for a fist full of treats
You were a good Mr. Monkey so I gave you some more
But then you ate all of my money from the corner store!

All at once and all together!
Life is good, but at the zoo it's better!
All for one, and one for all!
I love to see the sights, and I love the animals
I love to see the sights, and I love the animals
I love to see the sights, and I love the animals
