Songs Worth Singing

Peter McPoland

Wake me when the songs are sung
Before all my life's begun
For I hear and I know
Well still I'm weary of the way this will go

Call me up from time to time
Wipe away your smiling crime
Paint all the angels wings
Sing all the songs worth singing

Write to me as you see fit
Make it out to me as a kid
When I sing all that I knew
And the mountains were gray
And the sky was blue

Well I will sleep 'til the damage is done
Leave me be and let me run
Away from the sequences to fall
Far from the damned
Yeah, damn them all
Far from the damned
Yeah, damn them all
