

Burnin

Petit Biscuit

I feel it in my heart
Fires burnin up
Got no words coming out
To define my thoughts
I feel it in my heart
Fires burnin up
Got no words coming out
To define my thoughts

Got no words coming out
To define my thoughts

No one ever treated me like you do
Every words you're telling me feel so true
But love without promises
Is what I need to move ahead

I feel my whole body burnin
When I see you get undressed
It's getting so illusory, time freezes
But now we're acting like fake enemies

I feel it in my heart
Fires burnin up
Got no words coming out
To define my thoughts
I feel it in my heart
Fires burnin up
Got no words coming out
To define my thoughts

Got no words coming out
To define my thoughts

You tell me I get reckless sometimes
I try to keep the fire burnin inside your heart
We don't need no sleep tonight
I'm here for you to confess, don't be shy

Million colors in my brain
So much flavor on your lips
It's getting so illusory, time freezes
But now we're acting like fake enemies

That's not how two friends should be
Your attitude is confusing me

If we never ever give it a try
Would you do us this favor now
It will always be black and white
Until it fades out
But I'm sure we could mess around
Forget what the rules are
