

Power

Petite Meller

No we need no you
And all we've been through
There is nothing to
Help me get over you
Why am I to choose
Oh lord
I can't do it, darling
What am I to do
To help me pay my dues

He knows that I've got no power
He knows what you taught me too
Evil will forever lose my mind
I'll be coming straight at you

(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you

Darling it ain't good
To make me feel you could love me
So you said I should
You're lost in that suit
Nothing I would do
Will make you heart go nude
How did I get through
And being that deluded

Even in the darkest hour
He knows what I'm going through
Evil will forever lose my mind
I'll be coming straight at you

(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you

(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
(When you're feeling blue)
I'll be coming straight at you
