

Finding It Hard to Let Go

Petr Poláček

Another time has gone
I'm alone
I need to face my feels
In the world alone
I must live
My life without you here

See you all around (see you all around)
I'm ready to hit the ground

Save me
From breaking apart
'Cause I'm fallin'
And I'm losin' my heart
I don't know where it turn
But in time I will learn
But I know
And I'm finding it hard to let go (to let go, to let go.....)

And this time moves on
It's still hard
For me to hear your name
'Cause your love bellows
So strong
So takes my breath away

See you all around (see you all around)
I'm ready to hit the ground

Save me
From breaking apart
'Cause I'm fallin'
And I'm loosin' my heart
I don't know where it turn
But in time I will learn
But I know
And I'm finding it hard to let go (let go, let go.....)

Yeah, yeah...

In the world I've known
You are gone (you are gone, you are gone.....)

Save me
From breaking apart
'Cause I'm fallin'
And I'm losin' my heart
I don't know where it turn
But in time I will learn

That the feels left instead
That I'll always be great
I keep thinkin' about you
Again and again

But I know
That I'm finding it hard to let go

I'm finding it hard yeah...

I'm finding it hard

And the time moves on

It's still hard

For me to let you go (to let you go)
