Where Can I Go

I could take a plane to New York City I could hitchhike all the way to L.A. I could follow the sunrise tomorrow But be as close to You as today I'm beginning to see what You mean to me I just can't get away from Your love

Where Can I go without Your love there to haunt me I do believe You're playing to win I can't understand what makes You really want me But I'm feelin' like it's time to give in

I could climb the golden stairway to heaven I could catch the crowded highway to hell If I could find a place nobody has ever been I bet You'd probably be there as well I don't know why I've waited so long

Where Can I go without Your love there to haunt me I do believe You're playing to win I can't understand what makes You really want me But I'm feelin' like it's time to give in

Darkness is the same as the light to You Daytime is the same as the night When You put Your chains of love around my soul I know it won't be long before I let You take control

I could take a submarine to Atlantis I could take a flying saucer to Mars I could ride on the Milky Way someday But You've already numbered the stars I'm beginning to hear Your voice is so near Tellin' me You love me again

Where Can I go without Your love there to haunt me I do believe You're playing to win I can't understand what makes You really want me But I'm feelin' like it's time to give in
