

Battle Of York

Peyton Parrish

Winter nights of blood and steel
War amongst Northumbria
Woah! Off to York we row
Plains being converted to ash
Raze the fields and burn it all
Woah! Off to York we row

Sound the horns
The enemy shall fear
Unleash our war cry
Woah! The battle for York is ours

Woah! Vikings get ready for war
Woah! For the battle of York
Woah! This is something worth fighting for
Woah! For the battle of York
Can you taste the blood of man
Can you taste the victory
Woah! Are you ready to die in war?
Woah! For the battle of York

Glory in the battlefield
In the wall it's petrified
Woah! Off to York we row
Forming lines of dirt and green
March to claim our history
Woah! Off to York we row

Sound the horns
The enemy shall fear
Unleash our war cry
Woah! The battle for York is ours

Woah! Vikings get ready for war
Woah! For the battle of York
Woah! This is something worth fighting for
Woah! For the battle of York
Can you taste the blood of man
Can you taste the victory
Woah! Are you ready to die in war?
Woah! For the battle of York
