

Fate Of Hate

Peyton Parrish

Can you feel it, all around you?
The burden that you keep inside
It's time to rise up, and follow me
Follow me to war

Can you feel it, all around you?
The anger that you feel inside
It's time to rise up, and follow me
Follow me to war

Suffocating, around this fire
Burning up inside
Taking my stand, I'm rising higher
Fate of hate in me
Vengeful vow, ground in chaos
Terror, rise and reign
Stand for your honor, and rise for war
Fate of hate in me

Can you feel it, all around you?
The enemy you keep inside
It's time to rise up, and follow me
Follow me to war

Can you feel it, all around you?
The vengeance that you feel inside
It's time to rise up, and follow me
Follow me to war

Suffocating, around this fire
Burning up inside
Taking my stand, I'm rising higher
Fate of hate in me
Vengeful vow, ground in chaos
Terror, rise and reign
Stand for your honor, and rise for war
Fate of hate in me

Open my eyes, and look alive
I will survive, I'm a warrior, warrior
Open my eyes, and look alive
I will survive, I'm a warrior, warrior

Can you feel it, all around you?
Can you feel it, all around you?
Can you feel it- (I'm a warrior)
Around you? (Warrior)

Suffocating, around this fire
Burning up inside
Taking my stand, I'm rising higher
Fate of hate in me
Vengeful vow, ground in chaos
Terror, rise and reign
Stand for your honor, and rise for war
Fate of hate in me

Stand for your honor
Stand for your honor
Fate of hate in me
Stand for your honor
Stand for your honor
Fate of hate in me
