

Helgafjell

Peyton Parrish

I fall into the silence
And then I find you
The darkness is near, the mind isn't clear
Oh what have I become?

The bodies burn, our kingdom falls
The bodies burn, our kingdom falls

My body stuck inside a grave
My soul reaching out, trying to say
Stay alive, stay alive
Find a way through to afterlife

No battle greater than my strength
Though tyrants can hold their hands and save
Find a way (find a way)
I'll see you there upon Helgafjell

I fall into the darkness
And will I find you
The darkness is near, the mind isn't clear
Oh what have I become?

The bodies burn, our kingdom falls
The bodies burn, our kingdom falls

My body stuck inside a grave
My soul reaching out, trying to say
Stay alive, stay alive
Find a way through to afterlife

No battle greater than my strength
Some tyrants can hold their hands and save
Find my way (find my way)
I'll see you there upon Helgafjell
I'll see you (I'll see you)
I'll see you there upon Helgafjell
I'll see you (I'll see you)
I'll see you there upon Helgafjell
