

I'll See You Again

Peyton Parrish

The everlasting darkness
Begins to fill into my heart
A hundred days, a hundred more
We sail unto the battle for our home

My love, I
Will fight this war for you
And if I fall
I'll see you again
No matter the fight
I'll stand up and rise
I'll carry this weight
Across all divides
And if it's my time
Just know that I
Have loved you!

As I sail far from home
I can't help but think of you...
And I miss everything I love
If you hear me
Oh I...
Love you

My love, I
Will fight this war for you
And if I fall
I'll see you again
No matter the fight
I'll stand up and rise
I'll carry this weight
Across all divides
And if it's my time
Just know that I
Have loved you!

I'll remember everything with you
And I'll remember how you changed me
And I'll remember
I'll remember everything
And I'll remember till the day I rest my eyes

I'll remember everything with you
And I'll remember how you changed me
And I'll remember
I'll remember everything
And I'll remember till the day I rest my eyes
